Ministry Bio:
Most Revd Dr Robert Gosselin

Bishop Robert Gosselin is a global voice for unity within the Body of Christ. His ministry is shaped by the prayer of Jesus in John 17—that believers would be one, bearing witness to the gospel through the power of God's glory. He carries a message of reconciliation, spiritual clarity, and apostolic faithfulness to churches around the world.

A former U.S. Marine Corps Human Counterintelligence Non-Commissioned Officer, Bishop Robert brings a unique blend of discipline, discernment, and mission-focused leadership to his ecclesial work.

Episcopal and Archiepiscopal Service

He was consecrated to the episcopate in historic Apostolic Succession on June 10, 2012, at the Garden Tomb in Jerusalem. Since his consecration, Bishop Robert has served in several key leadership roles within the Church, including:

- Suffragan to the Bishop Primus
  Assisted in implimenting the directives of the Bishop Primus, advancing the global mission and strengthening international partnerships.
- Missionary Bishop for the Missionary Diocese of South Sudan (2013-2019)
  Appointed due to his firsthand experience in the region during its transition to national independence.
- Bishop Ordinary for the Diocese of Middle East–North Africa (2014-2021)
  Oversaw evangelism, clergy development, and church-planting initiatives across a complex and diverse region.

Under his leadership, this jurisdiction grew into an Archdiocese in November 2019, serving dioceses and missionary works in: Pakistan, Israel, Jordan, Kenya, South Sudan, Uganda, the Democratic Republic of the Congo, Ghana, Togo, and multiple emerging mission fields.

In August 2019 Bishop Robert was appointed Bishop Coadjutor of the Province of Reconciliation, and in July 2021 he was invested with the Provincial See, assuming the office of Metropolitan and Provincial Archbishop for the Province of Reconciliation.

Current Global Role

In addition to his provincial responsibilities, Bishop Robert currently serves as General Secretary of the Confessing Anglican Church, a biblically conservative communion rooted in the historic Anglican identity of being Catholic, Evangelical, and Protestant. The Church follows the ancient threefold order of ministry—bishops, priests, and deacons—and today serves approximately 2.1 million adherents in more than 10,000 churches across five continents.

Academic Credentials

- Master of Theology, Faith Theological Seminary
- Doctor of Ministry, Aidan University
- Ph.D. in Leadership & Organization (Summa Cum Laude; Member, Theta Alpha Chi Honor Society), Logos Graduate School
